Year : 1997

Desc. : Open Edition - Signed Lithograph. Jazz Abstracts is one of my first paintings dedicated to Jazz. This whimsical and very colorful image takes me back to the days when I myself studied piano. Even though I never pursued music as a profession, I always dreamed of performing with the late great Miles Davis who redefined Jazz using elements of Rock and Funk and eventually created a sound both breathtaking and groundbreaking. This image represents my fantasy and the reality of the influence Jazz has in my life.

Style : Abstract / Tech. : Print on paper

Theme : Music / Category : Collage or Joining

Price : $ 45

Year : 1997

Desc. : Ltd. Ed. 1000 signed and numbered lithograph. Old School Jazz was inspired by musicians that were the inventors of this uniquely American art form known as Jazz. Louis Armstrong and his orchestra were one of the first groups to bring Jazz into the forefront of American culture. Old School Jazz is my homage to King Oliver, who taught Armstrong Jazz, Kid Ory, Zutty Singleton, Red Callender, Charlie Beale and Barney Bigard. While listening to their early recordings I was immediately compelled to share what I felt and also to translate those feelings into a visual work of art that communicated the genius of these great pioneers.
